Why to be a member of AIoD?

Board Members Connection Hub

- Access an exclusive and extensive database that facilitates connections between companies in search of qualified board members, and talented directors like yourself.
- AIoD members are featured individually on our website.

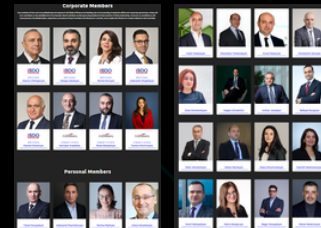

Deep Networking

- Peer-to-Peer discussions - real deep conversations between board members and field professionals on the issues that boards are actually grappling with — locally and globally.
- Targeted B2B connections – fostering collaboration between professionals and businesses for new opportunities in governance.
- Expert Exchange – we gather and share expertise to drive mutual growth.
- Regular gatherings – On-site and online touchpoints that keep the community connected, engaged, and evolving throughout the year. 5. Our flagship year-end moment — bringing together members and friends to exchange ideas, reflect on lessons learned, and shape what comes next.
- Annual conference of AIoD - year-end flagship event gathering members and friends for sharing ideas and discussing the future.

Advocacy

- A collective voice that matters — informed, credible, and heard on issues that count
- Active contribution to advancing corporate governance culture and practices in Armenia
- Strategic guidance on advocacy initiatives and public campaigns.
